PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION FOR PATENT ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY

Sir,

A Notification of Abandonment mailed on October 2, 2006 was received by this office on November 14, 2006. The reason for the abandonment is that Applicant allegedly failed to provide the full U.S. Basic National Fee by 30 months. "Upon entering deposit account number 01-1435 (as provided on the transmittal letter), our accounting system returned an error message stating that the deposit account number was 'Not Found.'" (See attachment.)

Reviewing the transmittal letter, the deposit account number was, in fact, entered incorrectly as 01-1435 instead of 01-1425. Nonetheless, Applicant's customer number (25291) on the certificate of express mail and my phone number on the transmittal letter (845-602-4760) were readily available to the Patent Office to resolve this matter without resorting to issuing a Notice of Abandonment. (See attachment.) Tracing Applicant's customer number or making a simple phone call would have quickly identified the error as a typographical error.

Application No. 10/583,014
Response dated November 16, 2006
Response to Notice of Abandonment mailed 10/2/06

Therefore, since Applicant unintentionally made an error in the deposit account number typed on the transmittal letter -- the correct number being 01-1425 -- Applicant respectfully requests that the above-identified application be revived, that the basic national fee be charged to deposit account number 01-1425, and that Applicant not be charged a fee for this petition.

Respectfully submitted,

Carol E. Rozek
